☒	Change to PDA development approval – Complete section 3.1 below
☐	PDA development application – Complete section 3.2 below

3.1 Change to PDA development approval
Previous PDA approval reference:	DEV2020/1165
Brief description of the proposed changes:
Changes are also proposed to the RAL aspect of the development which includes: - A change to the boundary of the 1 into 3 lot subdivision to reflect minor revisions to staging boundaries - The introduction of a new volumetric lot stage which seeks to create a volumetric lot around the entirety of the Stage 1. The introduction of this stage will allow for a building management statement (BMS) to be registered to put into place provisions for shared services between the lots.

- The introduction of a new volumetric lot stage which creates volumetric lots for the different aspects of the stage 1 building, resulting in their being volumetric lots for the residential, hotel and retail components
- Some changes to the conditioning of the ROL.

NOTE:

It is the responsibility of the Applicant to ensure the accuracy and authenticity of the application, including ownership or consent details. However, the assessment manager will review the information supplied in greater detail, where considered necessary.

Where there are multiple landowners, the consent of each owner must be provided.

For a company, owner's consent must be made in accordance with section 127 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Commonwealth), which requires the company ACN to be accompanied by one of the below:

- the names, titles and signatures of two company directors; or
- the name, title and signature of a company director and the company secretary; or
- where the company has only one director, the name, title and signature of that director in conjunction with a company search document which provides evidence that the company has only one director (i.e. sole director).

For a body corporate, owner's consent must be provided in accordance with the relevant requirements for a body corporate to make a decision under the Body Corporate and Community Management Act 1997. Evidence of the body corporate's decision to provide landowner's consent for the lodgement of the development application is to be provided to the EDQ Development Assessment Team with the development application, and is to include:

- the body corporate's seal, and two signatures of body corporate committee members, one of which must be the chairperson, and
- one of the following:
 - full body corporate: a copy of body corporate meeting minutes which include a decision to provide landowner's consent for the development application (i.e. minutes of a meeting where a motion is passed by ordinary resolution to provide the consent), or

- body corporate committee: a copy of a motion passed by resolution by the body corporate committee, at either a meeting or via flying minute, to provide landowner's consent for the development application.

Alternatively, the body corporate's consent can be provided through a signed letter of consent from each lot owner covered by the body corporate.

Please refer to the EDQ Practice note 21: Owner's consent for further guidance on the provision of valid owner's consent.

6. Approval history

Is there a development approval, granted under the Integrated Planning Act 1997 , the Urban Land Development Authority Act 2007 , the Sustainable Planning Act 2009 , or the Economic Development Act 2012 still in effect for the land?	☐ Yes
